Wedding Ceremonies

I have listed a range of ceremonies that I can tailor to your specific needs.

This list can help you decide where we can begin our discussions.

Legal Only

The ceremony constitutes the requirements for a legal wedding. It is designed for the couple the Celebrant and two witnesses to be in attendance. Usually held at your home.

“Elopement”

This simple ceremony is for people who are looking to be married with a minimum of fuss. The ceremony constitutes all requirements for a legal wedding. It is designed for the couple, the Celebrant and two witnesses to be in attendance. Usually at an informal location.

“Short and Sweet”

This simple ceremony is for people who are looking for a smaller and more intimate occasion. Usually held at an informal location with a small guest list of immediate family and close friends.

Significant, Short and Sweet

This simple ceremony is for people who are looking for a less formal, personalised wedding. Options available for sub ceremonies or involvement of other guests. For a larger guest list, the ceremony may be held in formal indoor venues or more casual outdoor settings.

Your Special Day

This more detailed ceremony is for people who are looking for a larger formal, personalised wedding. Options available for sub ceremonies and involvement of other guests adding music, readings or special family tributes. For a large guest list, the ceremony may be held in formal indoor or outdoor venues.
